

CREAM OF THE PAPERS.

WHIPPED TO SUIT OUR VARIOUS READERS.

A Glance Over Georgia Exchanges—Poorly Paid Ministers—A Strange Visitor—Barnum of a Lumber King, Etc.

That the presidential election is now near, it is important that no mistake should be made in voting for electors. The making of a letter in a single name will cause the ballot to be correct to vote as follows:

FOR PRESIDENT: GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT: ALLEN G. THURMAN, OF OHIO.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

At Large—THOMAS E. WATSON, JOHN T. GRAVES.

First District—JAMES A. BRANNON.

Second District—ARTHUR L. HAWES.

Third District—THOMAS B. FLEDER, JR.

Fourth District—JAMES M. MURPHY.

Fifth District—JAMES A. GRAY.

Sixth District—ROBERT L. SMITH.

Seventh District—MONTGOMERY L. JOHNSON.

Eighth District—JOHN T. JORDAN.

Ninth District—HOWARD W. NEWMAN.

Tenth District—E. HOWARD CALAWAY.

The Cherokee Advance says that Mr. N. S. Westbrook, who lives in the southeastern part of the county, brought into Canton a load of as fine sweet potatoes as has been seen this year, which he sold at thirty-five cents per bushel. He and others report that the crop is especially good this year. There is no more healthy or nutritious food for man or beast than the sweet potato. Mr. Westbrook is a good farmer, and raises good crops of anything he cultivates.

Cherokee Advance: Captain J. M. McFee lost a skin of about 500 feet of good lumber by fire last week at C. C. Hamby's mill, about four miles from Canton. Sam Duncan was firing it, and let the fire get too hot, which set the skin on fire. It was with some difficulty that the mill and several hundred thousand feet of lumber and stock were saved.

Brunswick Appeal: The Rev. J. B. McGhee once married a couple and two children were the result. The groom had a terrible crash against the altar door before the arrival of the minister, and after the ceremony he pulled forward the door and pointed behind it with the remark: "Here's your pay." Some time ago Rev. J. B. McGhee married a couple and was rewarded with three stalks of sugar cane. In these two instances the marrying business was a "failure" for the minister, whether it was with the bride or not. It would be well to expect, when a $5 man marries a $7 girl, that the groom should give $20 to the officiating minister; else, people in better circumstances as considerate as they might be of the pay to which a minister is fairly entitled, who takes a long ride on a cold day to accommodate a loving couple.

Colonel C. M. Coulam, manager of the Southern Express office at Columbus, received a very sad, denoted to his nervous system Tuesday. About 4 o'clock he was sitting outside of his office door, wearing his usual suit and a heavy smoking cigar, when he heard a terrible crash against the window over his head. In a few seconds something fell on his head and thence to the ground. He thought it was a brick that struck the window, the report was loud, and he started to see what caused the commotion, he found at the back of his chair the prostrate form of an apparently dead hawk. When the bird was picked up, however, it was found that it was only stunned by striking the window in its rapid flight. Mr. Coulam nursed it carefully until it revived it. He then fastened a tag tightly around its neck, marked "Southern Express, Columbus, Ga., Nov. 2, 1888," and turned it loose. For a while the bird hovered around the trees near the office, then flew off.

Talbotton, New Era: A certain young man of Talbotton, who is attending school, wrote to his parents last week, and mentioned several little articles he was needing. Among other things he said: "These shoes are getting so tight, I have had only two pairs since I have been here, and I have lost one of them." We hope this modest request was granted.

The Weekly Banner-Watchman comes out this week with sixteen pages filled with interesting reading matter and well patronized by Atlanta's live merchants. The newspaper Georgia fair, which occurs on November 6, is well written up in this paper. Messrs. Pope & Brumby deserve great praise for their splendid "fair" edition.

Bedding Register has been acting in the capacity of grand jury bailiff of Montgomery county superior court continuously for thirty-seven years, never missing a single session of the court. He desires to hold the position, if he lives, for three years yet, which will make forty years he has served as grand jury bailiff.

Hon. S. W. Brown, of Sumter county, met with quite a painful accident on Monday last. He was on his return home from Hawkinsville, and when about two miles from his place, he was driving a rather steep hill, his horse stumbled and fell down, turning his body over and throwing him out, which resulted in a bruising of one of his arms.

The Cartersville Courier-American thus sings of the season:

From sorghum mill
With sound and rattle
Comes luscious candy
Youngsters plump
Careless glib hand
Fears no harm
To rubs saw teeth
Feeds an arm.
The circus jockey
Old and spent
On tired public
Again is sent.
Foil stout face
Fire in room,
Flames at length
The house consumes.
Big fat postman,
Tatters sweet,
Happy quill,
Not dead at all.
Cooler rather Comes apace
Whereby judg trade
Both increase.
Cold old north
Expects freeze,
Organ grinder
Southern fies.
Nimble cap
On the go
Lively harvest
He will show.
Loaves—broomers,
Early-late,
Now for supper
Lay their bell.
Off to old ease
No more'll tell;
Alas! we fret,
The chestnut bell.

Major Barnes at Lincolnton.

LINCOLNTON, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—Major General T. Barnes, candidate for congress from this district, was here yesterday and today. No dread was ever entertained that even a single vote would be cast against him in the county, and his visit was only designed to remove any feeling of apathy that might exist here, and to encourage our people to get out a full vote for the democratic ticket on the 6th. Major Barnes is a great favorite here, and judging from the shower of bouquets he received, he will get the votes of all the ladies.

A Failure at Milledgeville.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—H. Adler, a prominent merchant of this city, has made an assignment. His assets are about $12,000, and liabilities said to be about $17,000. It is said that he has been in business here for many years, and his failure has many friends who will regret to hear of his failure. Bad collections and bad trade are supposed to have led to his failure.

General Longstreet to Be Present.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—General Longstreet will attend the reunion of Cobb's legion, and the Sixteenth Georgia Regiment on veteran's day, Thursday, November 8th, during the Northeast Georgia fair.

LOST IN THE SWAMP.

A Horrible Crime and Death of the Perpetrator.

BLACKSBURG, November 2.—[Special.]—The most heinous of all crimes, rape, was committed within four miles of Blacksburg this morning. The parties were a coal-black negro man named Makum Marshall, and a respectable white woman, the wife of young Henry Howard. Mrs. Howard and her son, Mr. Howard being off at work. It was early in the morning, the sun being only two hours high, when Marshall entered the house. He first made an insulting proposition to Mrs. Howard, which was indignantly rejected. He then assaulted her and left.

not far off. As soon as the nearest neighbor heard of the outrage, he hurriedly set out all over the settlement and into Blacksburg, and the crime was not two hours old before fifty armed and determined men were in pursuit of the black scoundrel. He was believed to have taken refuge in the swamp, and he was soon surrounded and searched, with his dogs and guns, sent to it. The water courses are still very high, and to prevent a possibility of escape, armed men stood guard at the end of the bridges across the different swamps.

About one o'clock this afternoon the party at the swamp heard a shout from the inside of the house. It was soon ascertained that the woman had been brought out and carried to Mr. Howard's house. Mrs. Howard instantly identified him, and Marshall acknowledged the crime and begged for mercy.

THE FINEST LYNCHING.

What happened afterwards your correspondent does not know. The information obtainable is that, so soon as Marshall's guilt was established beyond all question, he was taken back to the swamp, and those who have returned from there say that the courts will never be called upon to try him.

Marshall was a strange negro here, and but this is known of him. He was coal black, with a very low and forbidding countenance, and about twenty years old. It is supposed that he came from Appling county.

A TRAGEDY IN APPLING.

During Excitement Over a False Report Mr. Mims Is Killed.

From the Baxley, Ga., Banner.

It has been noticed around that the negroes in this vicinity were to rise and take to the hills on Saturday night. A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

"BLESS YOU, MY CHILDREN."

Parents Object to the Marriage, But Are Reconciled.

AUGUSTA, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A protracted courtship in opposition to parental restraint culminated over the river yesterday in a romantic runaway marriage. The parties to the affair were Mr. Willie Smith, of Augusta, and Miss Eva Deas, of Gracewood.

Augusta, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—A party of young men got drunk on that night and went to Mr. Mims' house with guns and pistols and began shooting and cursing.

Mr. Mims became frightened, snatching the door and fled through his back yard in the direction of Thomas Spivey's, where he thought he would be safe.

Mr. Spivey heard the shooting and loud cursing and thought the negroes were trying to take the town. He got out of bed, loaded his gun, and started in the direction of the end of his house to await the attack of the negroes, as he thought. Just at that time he saw Mr. Mims' family, who were coming from the negroes, shot Mr. Mims down, nine yards short taking effect in his body. He lived only a short time.

THE STATE FAIR.

EXHIBITS POURING IN FROM ALL SECTIONS.

Three Hundred Stalls Filled With Fine Stock—The Primary in Bibb County Yesterday—Short Items of Interest From Macon.

MACON, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—If the people of Georgia do not believe that the state fair, which opens in Macon on Monday morning, November 5th, will be a grand success, they should have been at the Macon park today to see the great number of entries that were made. The exhibits have been pouring in all day from all sections of the country, and the indications are that the fair will be the greatest success in the history of the Georgia State Agricultural society. The exhibition buildings will be fuller than ever seen before, and the display will be of a most elaborate and beautiful nature. The exhibits are being arranged in a most attractive and novel manner, and will elicit the admiration of the thousands of spectators who will be at the fair. Several carloads of exhibits arrived today from Houston, and a number of persons accompanied, to arrange the display. Several carloads of goods also arrived today from Polk, Hancock, Sumter and Talbot counties. The agricultural display will certainly be the finest ever seen in the south.

Fully fifty horses came in today, both for racing and exhibition purposes. The stock already arrived is about as follows: As yet, the arrivals will be very numerous tomorrow and Sunday. By Monday fully three hundred stalls will be occupied by exhibits. Mr. W. A. Wilkins, the largest and most successful horse breeder in the state, is in Macon today, arranging for stabling about thirty head of his elegant stock. Mr. Wilkins' display alone will be quite a horse show. The races will be excellent and will draw hundreds of visitors from neighboring towns. It is expected that some of the fastest time ever made in Georgia will be speeded during the fair.

Exhibitors commenced to arrive so rapidly yesterday that the secretary was unable to keep from the Macon to the park today, and a telephone was placed in the office at the park for the convenience of all wishing to consult with the fair management. Mr. J. H. Northen says the outlook for the fair exceeds his most sanguine expectations, and a phenomenal success seems to await the fair. The program of attractions is varied and interesting. There will be a number of amusements to entertain and interest. Sideshow, light rope, knife throwing, and other barbeque and grand fireworks, horse races, and many other attractions. There will be plenty on the ground beside the exhibits to hold the interest of the spectators and advance their pleasure and enjoyment.

The railroads have made extensive arrangements to haul the great crowds that are coming to the fair. The cars will be packed with people from all over the state, and many will come from foreign sections of the state. The hotels are prepared to accommodate thousands and an abundance of eat. There need be no fear in any one's mind that there will not be accommodation for all. Macon is always equal to the largest crowds.

HOW THE RACE RESULTED.

A Large Vote Polled In the Bibb Primary Election Yesterday.

MACON, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—Today at noon the democratic executive committee of Bibb county met at the county seat to consolidate the vote of the different precincts in the primary election yesterday for county officers. The race was a close one, and the result, like all election, brought its disappointments and regrets to all. Judge McManus, the present incumbent of about twelve years, faithful and efficient service as ordinary, was defeated by 330 majority by Colonel C. M. Wiley, one of the best and ablest men in the county. It is reported that Judge McManus will run as an independent at the regular election in January, but this rumor is not given much credence.

It certainly does not come officially from Judge McManus himself, for he has been confined to his bed with fever since before the election, and has not yet been out of his house, and his physician has strictly enjoined that politics should not be discussed about his bedside. It is true that there are many in Macon who would like to see him run as an independent, but the Judge has for long years been the stout old warrior in the democratic ranks, and it is not generally thought that he will run independent. His majority at the county precincts was 207, and he carried one city precinct by 21 and Wiley lost by 330.

The young lady left the house by the rear door, while her lover appeared in a buggy near the residence.

The young lady made directly for the trying place, and soon she and her lover were seated side by side in the buggy, and driving rapidly toward Augusta, where they were to be married.

Application was made to Ordinary Walton for a marriage license, but he refused to grant the application, owing to the youthfulness of the young lady. Undaunted, in the end, the couple crossed the river into Hamburg, where they also failed to procure a license. All trace was lost of them after leaving Hamburg, and their parents were very anxious about their last night. It is understood that he left the young lady at a hotel and called this morning and took her to Hamburg, where they met. Mr. Tom Butler, who escorted the young lady and sent for Rev. E. Walker, who arrived about 10 o'clock, and married them. They then returned to their home, where both families are reconciled and have given the youthful couple their blessings.

FROM CARTERSVILLE.

The New Railroad Recovers Takes Charge—Other Matters.

CARTERSVILLE, Ga., November 2.—[Special.]—Major J. H. West, the newly appointed receiver of the East and West railroad of Alabama, took formal charge of the road on yesterday.

It is generally understood that he will issue receipts for certificates for a sufficient sum to put the road in first class condition, make it a standard gauge and buy new rolling stock. In this he does, there can be no doubt that his importance, running as it does through a country rich in iron, coal and agricultural products, Major J. H. West has the best wishes of all our citizens for his success.

Our furnace is making gratifying progress; the site is graded for the furnace proper and are being put on the spur railroad track from the main line of the Western and Atlantic.

Two large and handsome brick buildings are in course of construction on Main street and Public square, and our town has a long way to go before it is a city.

Cotton receipts are large and our buyers are getting the highest prices. Everything looks favorable for the future of the iron city of the Etowah valley.

Major J. H. West has the best wishes of all our citizens for his success.

Our furnace is making gratifying progress; the site is graded for the furnace proper and are being put on the spur railroad track from the main line of the Western and Atlantic.

Two large and handsome brick buildings are in course of construction on Main street and Public square, and our town has a long way to go before it is a city.

Cotton receipts are large and our buyers are getting the highest prices. Everything looks favorable for the future of the iron city of the Etowah valley.

Major J. H. West has the best wishes of all our citizens for his success.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Something New!

Our new styles in engraved Wedding Rings and Vetting Cards are the most elegant we have ever shown. Samples will be sent to any portion of the South on request.

FREEMAN & CRANKSHAW,
JEWELERS.

44 Marietta St.

"808."

"This is to certify that I held the ticket numbered 808, which drew the $55 diamond ring advertised by J. R. Watts & Co., to be given away Nov. 1st. I have this day received the ring, and am very much pleased with it. TERESE DARGAN, Nov. 1st, '88."

Mrs. Dargan's home is in Texas, but is at present visiting in West End. We will soon announce our scheme for this month.

J. R. WATTS & CO.
JEWELERS AND OPTICIANS.
OPPOSITE THE OPERA HOUSE.
Tel. 60 by 111 freckers.

ESTLEY PIANO

It rapidly becoming
Most Popular Instrument
Of the present day.

SEE THEM.
CORNER BROAD AND MARIETTA ST.
1st old dish

Artificial Stone Paving

FOR—
SIDEWALKS, CELLARS, STABLE AND BREWERY FLOORS!
Improved Felt Cement and Gravel Roofing.
TWO AND THREE PLY READY ROOFING—
WATER PROOF BUILDING PAPERS—
ROOFING AND LINING
Estimates cheerfully given upon application.
S. L. FOSTER & CO.,
63 S. Broad St., Atlanta, Ga.
Oct 23 d m

TENTS!

Manufactured by
A. BERENSONG,
75 Hunter, Atlanta, Ga.

Ask for a Use Only—5c per Package—
Southern Queen Glass Starch.
It Beats the World. Resistant to Heat, Cold, and Dyeing.
A Superior Polishing Starch, ready for use for family laundry work. Sold in all first-class grocery stores. Solely for Atlanta,
Atlanta, Ga., U. S. A.
Solely for Atlanta, Atlanta,
Atlanta, Ga., U. S. A.

Sold in Atlanta, at wholesale, by A. Boynton
Frank E. Black, Franklin Bros., Joseph Smith,
Wiley & Greene, Tidwell & Pops, Kinney & Mc
Donald, Mel-Wilson.

To Watch Club Members.

Well, boys, the auction fun is over now, and you will find me at my new store, No. 51 Whitehall street, opposite M. Rich & Bros., where I will continue to give you cut rates in Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry and Silverware.

Much has been said lately about giving $60 watches in watch clubs for $50. Your cash will discount the above. I will duplicate any of those watches at $42.50 for cash.

I am also prepared to give you Swiss movements, with my name on them, but they will be sold to you as such, and not as goods manufactured by myself, as I will not tell LIES in order to make a sale.

Remember, Cut Rates in everything.

A. F. PICKERT, The Jeweler.

51 Whitehall Street.

THE WEATHER REPORT

INDICATIONS.
For Georgia: Light rain in northern portion; fair in southern portion, colder in northern portion, stationary temperature in northern portion, winds shifting to westerly.

Observer's Office, Signal Service, U. S.

ENTERED STATES CUSTOM HOUSE.
ATLANTA, November 2-7-88.

All observations taken at the same moment of actual time at each place.

Observations taken at 8 p. m. Seventy-fifth Meridian time.

STATIONS.

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

Barometer... Wind... Rain... Clouds...

SAM JONES

LECTURES LAST NIGHT AT TRINITY
UPON "NEITHER WET NOR DRY."

It Takes Men to Make a City and Character to Make a Man—Cranks as Necessary in ulps as They Are in Engines.

lecture room at Trinity was well filled last evening, and nobody went but would go again if the lecture was to be repeated.

Sam Jones was introduced by Rev. Dr. Lee a few minutes after eight, and was greeted with applause as he arose.

"Ladies and gentlemen," said he, "my subject for tonight is 'Neither Wet Nor Dry.' That represents the sentiment of the other fellow. It don't represent me. Now, I've got something to say to you, but as the old night says 'I believe in 'brown' roun' a little before I say what I've got to say."

If I was going to build a city I would look first to the men that were going to be citizens. Men have done everything that was worth doing, and history proper is a history of men. The task of man is in man himself. What's good in my nature is as good as God can make, and what is mean in my nature is as mean as the devil. I believe a man can inherit corruption, just as he can inherit a barroom. He can inherit a disposition to get drunk—but he's all right till he gets drunk. A man can inherit a barroom from his father. There's no harm in that, but if he's scoundrel enough to open that barroom and commence selling liquor, he's going to hell. When patrimony stops in a case of that kind and volition begins, a fellow is gone up. The first proposition is that a man can make or make it. The next proposition is that it takes character to make a man. A man's real worth is determined by the loyalty that's in him to his sense of right and wrong. If I could vote the sense and sobriety of this district, I would show up a big majority for Fiske and Brooks.

You're a democrat, because everybody else is. They say now, 'I'd rather be dead than to be out of fashion.' Well, I'd rather be dead than to be in fashion. After all it ain't following fashion that's wrong. It would be all right if the fashions were all right. Suppose it was fashionable to read three chapters in the Bible every night. When three or four ladies met together one would say, 'I read four chapters last night,' and another would say, 'I read five,' and another would say, 'I read six.' Suppose it was fashionable to pray. One woman would say, 'I staid on my knees for a whole hour last night,' and another would say, 'I prayed so good last night that I prayed all night long,' and another one would say, 'I haven't done anything but pray in three whole weeks.' I could make that sort of thing fashionable in Atlanta in three months if I just had a few speakers here as John the Baptist was. There's one preacher like that in Atlanta. Now, if this Constitution reporter says that every preacher in town will say, 'yes, yes, I guess Sam's right and I'm the very fellow.' Present company excepted Brother Lee. (Turning to Dr. Lee.) Old John was in prison one time and some of his conservative friends came to see him. They said, 'Look here, John, we've just come from Europe. Now, John, the best thing you can do is to sort of modify and mollify things a little bit, and Herod'll let you out of here.' 'No, sir,' says that grand old preacher, 'I'm going to stick to my text till the angels come out through the keyhole. I like these broad men—these broad thinkers. Atlanta has got energy and grit-up-and-gets enough, but you haven't got broadness enough. If there's one sentence, one aphorism that will cover Atlanta like a blanket it is this—I've got to live. There ain't a word of truth in it. What makes you think you've got to live? Conservation is the curse of Atlanta. Viewing from a distance as I am, I can see that a right on a straight road, its finding a way from one point to another shorter than a straight line. An old colored preacher said to me, 'Brother, do you see two roads? One is do broad rarer road leads to destruction. De order is do rarer broad road that leads to damnation.' 'Right yere,' said an Atlanta native, 'I takes to do woods.' If there ever was a time when Atlanta that night is right now. Conservation is 'Down with the cranks. Down with the cranks.' 'Gentlemen, I had rather see Atlanta than I had rather see any other place. I see that man downed. A firm here in Atlanta sent an engine out west, and after awhile they sent an engine back. 'Engine came all right, and as soon as it was ready to start up again, we send you the crank.' There was that big thing inert and lifeless because the crank was missing. That's what the matter with most of these churches here in Atlanta. Poor Tom Gresham is a martyr to conservation. The three elements here are the good, the bad, and the conservative. The good, Lord, to keep up my real estate. The whiskey man cries, 'down with the cranks.' The conservative man says, 'yes, he is a little too extreme.' But didn't he preach the truth? 'Yes, he told the truth, but I'm sorry he said it. You know, so-and-so's of friends at it.' Oh, you passionless snobs! Conservation says, 'down with wages.' Now I tell you when wages get down to a starvation ebb the blood begins to boil, and there are more workers in this country than there are bosses, anyhow. Conservation is fostering communism in this country, and the Lord knows too. I told them over in North Carolina that I was for Cleveland. I tell you in Georgia that I'm for Fiske and Brooks. You see its pretty close over there in North Carolina, and I want Cleveland to lose because that means the end of the republican party, and then in four years from now, the reform party can wipe up the earth with the democratic party. I'm a Jeffersonian democrat, and as long as time lasts, and good men are left on earth, there'll be Jeffersonian democrats. I can't be a St. Louis democrat, because that anti-sunshiny plank comes from the devil's platform. Religion is the cruelest thing on earth when you get it started on a conservative, conservative line. I despise these little jackleg preachers that are eternally calling somebody heretics. 'Hold on, they ain't orthodox.' Faith once delivered means prejudice once conceived, and it don't mean anything else. Every truth points to God, whether its orthodox or not, and who points Godward, it points to Christ, for Christ is between you and God. Conservation says 'take the Bible out of the public schools. There is a class of people that objects.' Up here in Boston the Protestant Christians got to quarreling about orthodox and conservatism, and the Catholics run the Bible out of the schools, elected their own mayor, and just took the city into their own hands. Conservation says this is quotation now, 'Save the preachers back into the pulpit.' Over here in Missouri they said they were going to drum me and Sam Small out of town. 'Why, you old fools,' said I, 'me and Sam's the drums, and we're going to drum you out.' I had a terrible tale out there in another little town. I told 'em, says I, 'Now, look here, you've got damnation enough in this town as it is. You've got a hell, and any alderman or councilman you've got would make a pretty good devil to run the office.' That's the way with the Bible says to preachers, 'They that sin largely open.' I'm going to better, or I'll give up my gun. You'd do best on one side or the other.

A fellow wife was sick one time, and the fellow went for a doctor. 'Dix one best,' said he to the doctor, 'and give kill you $5, kill or cure.' A day or two after the wife died, and a few days later the doctor called for the $5. 'Why, I don't owe you anything,' said the fellow. 'Yes, you do, you do,' said the doctor, 'you said you would give me $5, kill or cure.' 'Well, did you kill my wife?' 'Oh, no, no,' said the doctor, 'No, I didn't cure her.' 'Then I don't owe you anything.' If you're a man, plant yourself on the ten commandments and the sermon on the mount, and stand like a true man. If you are a conservative man, my advice is to get away from there. Here are the four classes—the liquor maker, the liquor seller, the man that rents the house and the man that hasn't done his best to prevent all that by his vote. Now the fellow that can distinguish them apart, so far as moral guilt is concerned, is a bigger philosopher than I am. Don't be a conservative. Let your glory be your character, and your reward will be a crown in heaven." At the conclusion of the lecture a collection was taken up for the benefit of Park street Methodist church, to which also the entire proceeds of the lecture go, and the audience was dismissed with a benediction by Rev. Dr. Lee.

If there ever was a specific for any one complaint, then Carter's Little Liver Pills are specific for sick headache, and every woman should know this. Only one pill a dose.

THE LOCAL STAGE.

Hon. Bartwell Stone... W. J. Florence... Colonel Gifford... William Herbert... Lord (carriage)... J. J. Fitzmaurice... Arthur Lemaitre... William Venable... Robert Vance... J. J. Fitzmaurice... Hon. George Seville... Newton Dana... George Washington Skidmore... J. W. Williams... Mr. Parsonage... J. J. Fitzmaurice... Senator Weatherax... H. Walton... Mr. D. G. Whitfield... J. J. Fitzmaurice... C. A. Dargan... J. J. Fitzmaurice... Blanche Moskowitz... Miss M. E. Fitzpatrick... Miss Hope... Miss Merton Hastings... Mr. and Mrs. Florence and an excellent company formed the nucleus of the audience that tells the whole story. It means that the audience was large, that everybody was carried away by the exquisite comedy of these two famous comedians, and that the comedy was the best of the best, but, if not often that in the south are furnished the leisure of her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Honorable Member from the Kolobah district and of Mrs. General Gifford, everybody was kept in a good humor.

The company is an excellent one and the fun was of the most delicious kind imaginable. Any attempt to describe the comedy of Mr. and Mrs. Florence would be useless. They are Mr. and Mrs. Florence, and their comedy is the best of the best. The Honorable M. C. with his f. d. g. s. o. t. f. j. g. and son at infinitum; and Mrs. General G. who has lived so long abroad, whose life is almost miserable for her cases for "Libby Dargan" and who comes it is all the more highly appreciated. That of last evening was certainly appreciated and enjoyed, if the demonstrations of the audience were any criterion by which to judge. From the first appearance of the Hon